About

Joyful. Energetic. Magnetic. Passionate. Real.

The Scally Brothers are a dynamic duo from Toledo, Ohio composed of Jake and Zach Scally. From an early age the brothers developed a passion for their faith and love of all things music. The duo makes a powerful statement with their much-anticipated album, KEEP HOPIN' // KEEP DREAMIN', an epic, sweeping musical landscape that encompasses themes of ambition, dreams, and purpose.

The album's soaring debut features a hypnotic wave of rhythm and electronic sounds. Their title track, Keep Hopin', sets the stage and cuts through the societal noise to remind us about what is important in our life: "If there is breath in your lungs, God is not done yet. We have to KEEP HOPIN' & KEEP DREAMIN'!"

This inspiring pop masterpiece also represents the exciting adventure into a new life for brothers Jake and Zach, who were propelled into stardom with the release of their critically acclaimed single, Keep Hopin', which debuted on nearly one hundred national radio stations across North America achieving over 3.5 million plays worldwide.

"God has certainly blessed us in so many incredible ways," says Jake. "If you would have told us ten years ago we'd be here, I wouldn't have believed it. God had something special planned this whole time, bigger than anything we could have ever dreamed. We owe it to Him, our community, and ourselves to pour everything we have into our ministry. We have to continue to keep the same heart posture – to serve and point others to Jesus."

A handful of their other tracks – YOU, Right On Time, and You Are Good (Even When) – also debuted on multiple editorial playlists on platforms such as Spotify, Apple Music, and Amazon Music. In addition to their studio success, the duo performed nationally on a widely successful 100-date tour.

"The musical progression on this album is a question for all of us," Jake explains. "Looking at these songs – the greater question is where our hope lies. When stared in the face of adversity, disaster, and chaos – where do we look? As Christians, we are challenged to look onward of the hope we have in Jesus. Not the hope of this world."

"There's a commonality to the pre-chorus of You Are Good (Even When)," Zach picks up. "I've been through the ringer but I know, if I lose it all still I've got hope.' It's possible to still have an unshakeable faith in the midst of tragedy. Rather than swaying with the waves of life, we can find stable ground. Stability in God."

Whether employing confident drum sections in Defined By You, flawless harmonies on Keep Hopin', or syncopated gang vocals on YOU, the duo creates intriguing soundscapes, while painting meaningful truths and its new album, KEEP HOPIN' // KEEP DREAMIN'.

"When you go through life, the more you realize God's timing is always perfect," Zach shares. "Whether it's someone who walks into your life at just the right time, or a friend calls you when you're going through a difficult season. God's timing again and again - is perfect."

The Scally Brothers began writing and recording songs about hope and love over twelve years ago, when the band was originally founded, with messages that are vital during the valleys of our lives.

"I just have to tell you how much your performance meant to me last night here in Wichita," says an anonymous Scally Brothers fan. "I felt like you were speaking directly to me during one of your songs. You mentioned that depression, anxiety, and financial stresses can't defeat God. I have been having such a struggle the last several months with these issues and your words really touched me. Thank you for allowing God to speak through you and your music!"

This year Jake & Zach are performing all around the Northern Hemisphere for their twelfth tour. Their live performances are known for high-energy production, elaborate light shows, pyrotechnics, and stunning visuals. These elements combine to create an immersive experience that rivals some of the biggest acts in Christian music.

The Scally Brothers' music provides answers, comfort, and affirmation, while offering a constant reminder that we aren't alone, even in our darkest hour.

KEEP HOPIN' - RADIO VERSION
RELEASED JULY 19TH, 2024

The song that changed everything (for us).

In the summer of 2019 we were out in Wichita, KS playing a show to nearly five thousand people. Growing up in Toledo, Ohio - we never had the opportunity to visit the great state of Kansas before. Needless to say, we were so pumped and excited that our tour had stopped nearly thirteen hours from our home. God had certainly been kind to us.

As we were finishing up our concert, something we always like to do is meet people at the conclusion of our set. Whether that be a heartfelt prayer, handshake, high-five, or hug. We want to say thank you and also encourage those who came out and bought a ticket to support us. At this time we were closing our performances with a song called "HOPE" - to serve as a reminder of the hope we have in Jesus.

As we ventured back to our table to say thank you to those in attendance, we were greeted by a kind elderly woman, named Sue. This would be the same woman who would go on to inspire our song, Keep Hopin'. She began thanking us for the concert and message – citing by memory some of the lyrics of our songs. Sue then started to open up about some of the hardships in her life recently. Saying how she had been struggling with thoughts of depression, anxiety, and financial stress. Sue then said, "But, tonight I am walking away with so much hope for the future God has for me." We were touched that God had spoken to her in such a profound way, even in the midst of a difficult season.

Sue went on to say, "Even though I am ninety-nine years old, I am reminded tonight, that as long as there is breath in my lungs, God is not done writing my story."

There we stood, in awe of what Sue had just said. At the time we were seventeen and twenty years old... at a loss of words. Before Sue left for the night, we asked her if we could write a song about this. Sue replied with a handful of tears, smiles, and an emphatic "yes!"

That week our tour finished and we found ourselves still thinking about what Sue had said to us. This was the same week that Keep Hopin' was written.

Keep Hopin' was inspired by Sue, the ninety-nine year old woman in the middle of Kansas, going through a difficult season, but knowing that God is not done writing her story. To us, this is where the verse in Jeremiah came to life. "For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord. They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope." (Jeremiah 29:11)

What a future and hope we have in Jesus! And what a gift today is. Let's all strive to KEEP HOPIN' & KEEP DREAMIN' – God's not done writing our story.

AS LONG AS THERE IS BREATH
IN YOUR LUNGS,
GOD'S NOT DONE.
